GARFIELD

HIGH

FOREWORD

True success is the educating and adapting of one's mind and soul in such a manner that he may be able to enjoy life and appreciate its highest conceptions, that he may partake of the sweetness of nature, and in his daily walks and labors be able to teach and enlighten the minds of others, thus making life a pleasure to his fellow-man as well as to himself.

DEDICATION

To a World Traveler, MISS PEARL RAMSEY, in appreciation of her many years of devotion to Garfield High School students.

FACULTY LUNCHEON

The faculty luncheon, on the closing day of school, has become traditional. The Spring 1956 luncheon was held at Yanko's restaurant.

Much gaiety presides at this affair, as another school year is completed, as everyone is looking forward to the summer months when they may devote their time to travel, study, recreation, work, or relaxation.

SENIOR SHOW

THREE FOR TONIGHT

THE VALIANT was well performed by Ronald Palmer, Edward Bender, Bob Ammon, Dorothea Kremer, and Gene Hachen.

The hit of the evening was short musical comedy AMAZONS ON BROADWAY, with an all girl cast. Joan Harris and Mary Lent as the lead.

A scene from THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST by Oscar Wilde one of the short acts in the senior class show THREE FOR TONIGHT. This particular act was presented before community organizations and school assemblies.
